Choose the best possible answer for each statement or question.

1. Depression does which of the following
   A. Reduces happiness and well-being
   B. Contributes to physical and social limitations
   C. Complicates the treatment of concomitant medical conditions
   D. All of the above and more

2. A good title for this selection would be
   A. Late-life Depression, Delirium, and Dementia
   B. Assessment of the Elderly
   C. Reversible Disorders
   D. Psychological Problems in the Young

3. The authors imply that
   A. Mistaking delirium for dementia would result in a tragic mistake
   B. Delirium is the same as depression
   C. Depression is the same as dementia
   D. Delirium causes depression

4. If a beginning nurse cannot accurately assess an older patient’s cognitive impairment, he or she should
   A. Make the best possible guess
   B. Ask the patient more questions
   C. Ask the family more questions
   D. Consult a nurse who specializes in gerontology
5. Delirium and depression are
   A. Reversible
   B. Irreversible
   C. Deadly
   D. Innocuous