OFFICE OF ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Division of Business Assistant/Associate Professor of Business – Supply Chain Management

The Division of Business at Bloomfield College invites applications for a tenure-track position at the rank of assistant or associate professor for the 2021-2022 academic year.

We are interested in a candidate who can teach courses in supply chain management and operations management. The faculty member will be expected to lead development of a new undergraduate program curriculum in supply chain management. Candidates should be eager to work in a small college setting, with a highly diverse student body, where teaching and student success is the focus. The successful candidate should have a Ph.D. or D.B.A with some higher education teaching experience. Preference will be given to candidates with a discipline background in operations, logistics, supply chain management or related areas. Candidates must have a strong commitment to teaching and innovation, and be available for service to the division and school. The appointment requires flexibility in teaching day/evening classes and in-person/online teaching.
